Jim and Bette Sherman Fine Arts Scholarship Application

Bette and Jim Sherman are longtime residents of Coronado. Bette, an artist, has brought her love of art to local children by funding art lessons for them at the library (the Second Saturday Art classes). Two Jim and Bette Sherman Fine Arts Scholarships will be awarded, both in the amount of $2,000. One will be awarded to a student with a passion for the fine arts who is a student of COSA, and the other will be awarded to a student with a passion for the fine arts who is enrolled in the Coronado High School regular curriculum. For purposes of these scholarships, the term “fine arts” shall mean items of visual beauty but shall specifically exclude film, video digital media. These $2,000 scholarships will be awarded by the FOL to high school seniors.
